Short description from the host organization	After the political changes in 1989-90 we were the first newly founded special school for disabled children in the former East Germany. Since then, we have continued to develop steadily us. Today, we are a fully-equipped school with 16 classes with twelve grades. Our residential home for the pupils has four groups with each eight places. The school and residential home are independent school agencies. The carrier is the operating company Heilpädagogik-Bonnewitz not profit GmbH. It is a subsidiary of special education-Bonnewitz non-profit foundation that it has set itself the task of promoting the anthroposophical curative education in the Dresden area and to actively operate. The Foundation has arisen from the Special Education School Bonnewitz out.
