Short description from the host organization	The Kindergarten is located in an old Villa called "Mohrenhaus". The beautiful old villa, which resembles a small castle is surrounded by a large wooded park where there are many ways to play and run, to look into the nature and to play sports. Each season has its charms. The adjoining adventure playground and the soccer field provide additional opportunities to be the urge to move the children justice. Our large forest park invites even outside the opening times of the day care center to sporting activities and a meaningful leisure time.
